

ISSAQUAH SCHOOL DISTRICT DISCLAIMER

The attached list of individual(s)/agencies is being provided as an informational item for your convenience. The Issaquah School District does not recommend or endorse any of these individual(s)/agencies provided on the attached and will not be held liable or responsible for any services provided by them. As such, the Issaquah School District highly recommends that you conduct your own research and investigation and exercise due diligence before selecting any of these individual(s)/agencies for services.

Summer Opportunities in the Issaquah Area

Issaquah School District (ISD) Summer School is offered to at the high school and elementary levels. Elementary Summer School serves Kindergarten through fifth grade students. This opportunity reinforces skills and can give students a jump start on the next grade-level learning. Classes take place at a designated elementary school within the ISD. Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website:

<https://www.issaquah.wednet.edu/academics/programs/summerschool>

ISD Before and After School Care (BASC) offers summer camps for kids at the elementary and middle school levels. The elementary aged camp is called Club Connection. There are various locations with all camps taking place at Issaquah School District elementary schools. Any elementary student living within the ISD boundaries is welcome to enroll and must attend the site location designated for the school they will attend in the fall. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <https://bascbreaksandsummer.weebly.com/>

The YMCA offers are huge variety of day camps, overnight camps, and leadership camps. Use their online search tool to find the right fit for what you're looking for. The Sammamish Family YMCA is the closest geographically to Klahanie. Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <https://www.seattleyymca.org/node/2121>

Issaquah Parks and Recreation offers summer camps in various locations around Issaquah for ages 3-12. Scholarships are available. Camp themes vary by week and can be found detailed in their Recreation Guide which is posted on their website along with registration information: <http://www.ci.issaquah.wa.us/index.aspx?NID=753>

Klahanie Pool is open throughout the summer. The Klahanie Swim Team also competes throughout the summer and includes kids ages 5-18. There are tryouts to join this competitive, recreational swimming team. More information can be found on the Klahanie Association website: https://www.klahanie.com/sub_category_list.asp?category=13&title=Pool+Info

Positive Ally offers weekly summer camps for grades Kindergarten through 6th. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <https://www.positively.com/>

Village Theatre offers various theater and dance camps with a variety of age ranges (PreK-12th grade) and themes. Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://villagetheatre.org/issaquah/kidstage-summer-class-schedule.php>

Youth Theatre Northwest also offers various theater and dance summer camps with various themes for kids ages 3 through camps geared towards grades 6+. Youth Theatre Northwest is located on Mercer

Island. Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://youththeatre.org/classes-camps/summer-camps-2018/>

Museo Art Academy offers art camps with various themes depending on your student's interests. Camps are designed for students ages 5-14. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://www.museoart.com/summer-camps.html>

Tech Venture Kids offers STEM half-day and full-day summer camps that highlight interactive coding and hands-on projects for students ages 6-13. Camps take place in various locations throughout Issaquah, Kirkland, Redmond, and Newcastle. Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <https://techventurekids.org/stem-camps-enroll/>

Issaquah Salmon Hatchery offers a week-long salmon science camp for kids ages 3-12. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://www.issaquahfish.org/salmon-science-camp/>

Sno-King Ice Arena in the Renton Highlands offers a couple of ice skating camps over the summer. Beginners through Intermediate ice skaters are welcome to join in on the fun! More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://snokingrenton.com/learn-to-skate/summer-ice-skating-camp-for-kids>

Wolf Camp and the Conservation College offers day camps at Lake Sammamish. These camps are geared towards ages 6-11 and have a new outdoor or wilderness skills theme each week! Scholarships are available. More information and registration details can be found on their website: <http://www.wolfcollege.com/>

SeattleU Summer Reading Program includes classes offered in Issaquah! Call the following number to find out more: 1 (800) 570-8936.

The University of Washington Summer Camps – STEM and Tech-focused courses for kids and teens! Check out their website for more information, including registration details: UW Summer Camps

Challenger's online community message board can be another great resource for finding summer opportunities in the area. Community organizations post things here throughout the year and summer opportunities are often posted throughout the spring: <https://app.peachjar.com/flyers/all/schools/35368>

You can try a Google search to find camps based around your student's specific interests and your family's schedule and financial considerations. There is always something new to discover and this list is certainly not complete!